

THE YELLOW JACKET
1952

Martha,

Although I protest in doing this and seeing that you are twisting my arm to write something nice about you, I'll try my best. I don't know what to write because everyone knows what a sweet, cute and loveable girl you are. Stay just as you are and you will get somewhere in the future.

I'll always remember the fun we've had all this year. And I wish you all the luck, love, and happiness in the whole wide world. You really have a personality, so you have many, many friends and they all know how sweet you really are. The ocean is wide and I can't step it, I like you, and I can't help it when you are sliding down the banister of life. I hope you stick a splinter in your caca.

Love ya always Jan James

Martha,

It has indeed been a pleasure knowing you and being in school with you. Remember the times we had on the ballbus? I have enjoyed knowing you these past few years. I want to wish you all the luck, success, and happiness possible.

Martha,

I can't realize this will be the last week I will ride the bus with you. We have certainly had some good times. Remember all of those little gossipy sessions we had on the bus.
We sure did talk about a lot of people, didn't we, when I go to school next year, you write me and come up to see me. In the future you and your can visit me with all of your (youngins)
Best of luck to one of the sweetest,
cleverest, friendliest, and nicest girls I have ever met.

FOREWORD

As the years go by and 1952 becomes only a vague memory to us, our minds will wander back to our high school days at Landis High and the happy times we had there. We will not only remember the many banquets, dances, and sports that helped to make the school year a more enjoyable one, but also our many scholastic accomplishments which we worked so hard to achieve. The many new things which we learned during the High School Years, that helped to make our life a more successful one, will mean much to us in future years.

All these things will seem more unforgettable to us as time passes and many of our most cherished thoughts will be those of our high school days. We hope that this 1952 Yellow Jacket will serve as a means for renewing all those happy times and bring to all of us those familiar faces of our friends and teachers that we love so well.

DEDICATION

Mrs. Robert Cross

To one of our most unforgettable teachers, whose constant hard and untiring devotion to school activities has brought about a more enjoyable school year to the entire student body, we the senior class, hereby dedicate this our 1952 Yellow Jacket to Mrs. Robert Cross.

CLASS HISTORY

Our class of 1952 will leave the sacred halls of Corriher-Lipe High School, as students, when our graduation exercises are completed. But our hearts will always remain with our Alma Mater. The pleasant memories of our school days, far from the worldly problems of adulthood, will not be forgotten.

Among our fondest memories is the day in September of 1948 when we entered Landis High to drop our first pebble into the ocean of broader education.

The first ripple made by the pebble revealed much pleasure as we became accustomed to the ways and means of the school that was to be our home for the next four years. Our class advisors, Mrs. Earl Cavin, Miss Doris Lackey, and the following officers: Bobby Harrington, President; Bill Sells, Vice-President; Angela Cook, Secretary and Treasurer; Imogene Page, Reporter, helped us get established in this institution for a successful year.

Now we began to be recognized in organizations. Imogene Page was elected as Secretary of the Student Body for the following year.

The second ripple grew larger as we entered our Sophomore year. We shed our title of "Green Freshmen," and took our new one of "Sophisticated Sophomores." Sophomores — music to our ears. We figured that we knew just about all there was to know about high school, but we were only beginning to learn.

Many of our class participated in sports, while others were in the Band and Glee Club. Our officers for the year were: President, Bill Sheeks; Vice-President, Bill Sells; Secretary, Imogene Page; Treasurer, Elaine Griffin; Reporter, Joyce Holshouser. We were under the leadership of Miss Lois Campbell and Mr. Bob Phillips, who helped us through the trials of this our second year of high school.

Bill Sheeks was elected as Second Vice-President of the Student Body for the following year.

The third ripple expanded even more and we found ourselves in the Junior class.

In October at our class meeting, we chose to lead us: President, Bill Hare; Vice-President, Elaine Griffin; Secretary, Helen Jackson; Treasurer, Floranne Clodfelter; Reporter, Joyce Holshouser. We had Mrs. H. S. Leafe, Mrs. Walter Ramseur, and Mrs. Bob Cross as our advisors.

This was to be an eventful year for us, as Juniors. We had our first class play, "He Who Hesitates," which was directed by Mrs. H. S. Leafe.

A great event of the year was the Halloween Play and Carnival, which we sponsored. Both were a great success due to the help of our director, Mrs. Bob Cross.

Joyce Holshouser was elected to reign as queen of the Halloween Carnival and later held the title "Miss Landis High."

Another great event was our Sadie Hawkins Day, which we sponsored. At lunch on that day each girl chose the man of her dreams and put her patch on him. That night we had a square dance in the gym, to celebrate the day.

We contributed a great deal to sports with Bill Hare and Jill Castor as our "Big Wheels."

Due to the fact that the Juniors are always expected to give the Seniors a banquet in the spring, we followed the same method. It took plenty of hard work and guidance to raise enough money to pay for this, but we finally did get enough

THE 1951 YELLOW JACKETS

The Landis High School Yellow Jackets have marked up another winning season this year. The team was stricken heavily by graduation last spring, but came through under the direction of Coaches Dan Hamrick and Bo Bell to build another strong line and four good backs to post another impressive record of five wins, one tie, and two defeats.

The team placed two backs on the first tri-county team and two linemen on the second team.

Scores of this year's games are:

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Everybody grab the seat in front of you and hold tight while you let your imagination run away with you for a few minutes into the year of 1968. Let's take a little peep into the future and see what the class of '52 of Landis High School is doing. Suppose you are in a large cloud high above the earth so high that you can see all over the earth and what everybody is doing. The continent of North America is dotted neatly with representatives from this unusual class of '52.

Now let us turn our binoculars way over—yes, way over to Paris, France. We can see E. J. Heglar and Joyce Lyerly finding the latest of fashions in order to keep up to date with their work in the U. S. Two outstanding models from the U. S. now in Paris are Helen Nichols and Beatrice Helms, who seem to be advancing far in this work. A little upward we see Glenn Julian, American Ambassador to England, in a big discussion with ambassadors from other nations. To be sure all reports are kept clear, we see Miss Jewell Poarch on the side line with her steno book, writing shorthand at 200 words per minute.

Going back across the Atlantic, we spot a big ship commanded by Glen Yow. This being a passenger ship, we see entertaining the people, Anne Deal, and Jean Mills, famous vocalist of the Stork Club, and Miss June Barker, famous comedian from New York. Working at the bar is Miss Peagy Logan who has chosen a waitress as her career. For sea-sick passengers, a special nurse, Miss Elaine Griffin, and her assistants, Joyce Holshouser, Evelyn Nance, and Bessie Wright are on duty at all times.

Now with our binoculars we can see clearly New York City. It seems that we see Bill Hare, Paul Lutz, J. C. Scercy, and Jerry Blackwelder, signing long-term contracts with the New York Yankees — and there's Phil Lipe & Son's Main Office with Imogene Page as his private secretary. Lipe, of course, is Superintendent of a large chain of grocery stores—so large that they have just run A. & P. out of business. Also on Wall Street we see a huge office, that's headed "Offices of the Noah's." Noahs, you know is a well-known 5 & 10c store chain with branch offices all over the world. The head business managers of these large branches are Bessie Roberts, Bonnie Holt, and Ramell Gullege. Beside this is the "Clawson's School of Music" under the management of Miss Bessie Ann Clawson.

Now let's set our binoculars a little southward at Washington, D. C. We can see Bob Brawley's name on every corner. He is running for President of the U. S. Miss Helen Jackson, first lady to run for a higher office, seems to be doing well as a candidate for Vice-President. Howard Moss is her campaign manager.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is the center of Agricultural implements. At the head of this large company is Lonnie Karriker, whose work is so great that he must have two male assistants, Jerry Daughtery, and Bruce Smith and two private secretaries, Joan Karriker and Sarah McNeely. Also in this large city we see Don Clanton searching for some factory that will sign a contract to fix his brakes.

So get another hold on your seat while the nation's famous Telephone Operator, Hazel Yost, gives us this message, Bill Sheeks was just elected governor of New York. Boy, does he get around, so I guess we will have to congratulate Charles Smith and Bobby Morgan, on their fine job as campaign managers.

If we look further southward, we can see Kenneth Weddington, President of the Department of Agriculture at N. C. State College in Raleigh. His assistants are Richard Atwell, Gerald Wise, and Murray Freeze. Also in this fair city we see some other distinguished members of this class, namely: William Jackson, President of the N. C. Department of Motor Vehicles; Foy Overcash, State Representative for General Motors, specializing in Chevrolet work.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Now back over in Hollywood we see the great movie "Rastus," starring Bill Slough as Rastus. Also in Hollywood we see Miss Angela Cook and Joanne Beaver taking their screen tests only for the third time. And in Hollywood—no in Denver—no in Chicago—now it looks like New York. Well, anyway it's Guy Ritchie, trying to break his record of crossing the U. S. in five minutes in his 68 Chevrolet.

In Charlotte, Robert Edmiston and Jerry Karriker are going strong and have been ever since joining the World's Fair. We see Mrs. Mary Nell (Bostian) McCarn and Mrs. Eva (Deal) Yost boarding an airliner at the Charlotte airport with Miss Betsy Allman as the air hostess. We think maybe they are on the way to join their husbands of the U. S. Army. There is Mrs. Betty (Goodnight) McCorkle shopping in downtown Charlotte with her fingers still crossed for the same reason — hoping her husband won't be drafted into service.

Also in Charlotte we see Freddie Duncan and Bill Joyce giving a concert at their specially built Auditorium which seats 18,000 people. And the latest—Ernest Overcash is the new Mayor of Charlotte.

It makes you feel proud to see some of the girls of our class in service too. There's Misses Anita Taylor and Mildred Cook showing off their new Wave uniforms at their base in Washington, D. C. Can you imagine Miss Nancy Ingram being a cop? Well, she just walked out of the F. B. I. building and seems mighty concerned over some problem.

Look! What do we have here. It must be a celebration, yes it is—a 15th wedding anniversary for two of our classmates. Freida (Pennell) Goodnight and Hilda (Beber) Beaver are having a gay time at one of Janice Fink's large drug stores. The soda jerks are none other than Elsie Troutman, Betty Jane Bowles, and Betty Outen.

In Kannapolis, N. C., we see two familiar looking female characters: namely, Doris Correll and Floranne Clodfelter, checking their files in the large Cannon Mills office.

By the way, everyone hasn't deserted dear ole' Landis. There we see a big club owned by James Beaver and Emmitt Griffin with its chief motto: "Don't talk, just listen." Their secretary is Miss Eugene Abernathy, who just can't learn the meaning of their motto. Bob McLaughlin is Agriculture teacher at Central High in Landis. Others on the faculty are Miss Bettye Huffman, Miss Elaine Brotherton, Miss Mary Rice, commercial instructors, Miss Frances Hinson and Miss Colleen Cook. Teaching in the elementary grades is Miss Vivian Bostian. The new cafeteria dietitian is Mrs. Jeanette (Adams) Holshouser with her assistants, Miss Marlene Overcash and Miss Colleen Upright.

Well, Voygt Roseman is batching and saying that prices are too high to get married. We see Miss Mary Ellen McCarn, who still insists that she wants to be an old maid, and her cocker spaniels; Sir Goofus of Canterbury, is her favorite one.

Miss Jill Castor is manager of the unbeaten women's basketball team of the world. Miss Carol Osborne is one of Jill's star players. None of the players' height can exceed five feet, so we hear.

Well, this ends the Prophecy of the Class of '52. Oh! Wait, what is this we hear coming? Oh, it's our one and only, Guy coming through Landis on another of his attempts of breaking his five-minute speed records, (or his neck). Looks as if he might succeed this time.

CLASS HISTORY

and had some left over. A few weeks later we were honored with a prom given by the Seniors.

For the following year Bobby Brawley was elected as the Student Body president and Helen Jackson as first vice-president.

As the circle grew wider into spheres of greater influence, we were at last "dignified" Seniors.

Bill Sheeks, President; Elaine Griffin, Vice-President; Floranne Clodfelter, Secretary and Treasurer; Janice Fink, Reporter, led us through an exciting and busy year.

There were many things to be done. Class colors, flowers, superlatives and mascots were chosen. Our "Class Prophecy," "Class History," "Last Wills," and Activities were written. We had pictures made and did that exciting business of ordering annuals, caps and gowns, and diplomas. It was our turn to have "Senior Day." Sherry Barnhardt and Steven Major were elected to be our mascots.

Yes, the day finally came when our long-awaited-for class rings arrived. We proudly displayed them after the first six weeks of school.

Then came the Senior play with all its practice. When the final night came we all were tops. This we could not have done if it had not been for the help of our director, Miss Corinne Stiller.

Mary Ellen McCarn was crowned Landis High School's Christmas Queen and Elaine Griffin was elected "Miss Hi Miss."

In the spring we began to feel more like Seniors when the Junior class honored us with a banquet. A few weeks later the Juniors were honored with a prom sponsored by the Seniors.

As far as sports were concerned, Jill Castor and Bill Hare were still our "Big Wheels."

During our twelve years of school, we had looked forward to the time when we could march down the aisle with solemn dignity to the Baccalaureate Sermon, the Class Day Exercises, and across the stage to receive our diplomas. But now that the time had finally arrived, there was a peculiar feeling deep inside us. It hardly seemed true, after these years of "tailing and struggling," we were leaving our Alma Mater. It was hard to realize that we would not be coming back here as students anymore, that we were parting from many of our friends, never to see them again.

We have spent a most wonderful four years in high school. Though the last ripple of our high school career had passed, its joys will never fade from our memories.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF THE CLASS OF 1952

County of Rowan
Town of Landis
State of North Carolina

We, the graduating class of Landis High School of the year of 1952, being of sound mind, and knowing that our days are numbered here, have decided to make, ordain, publish, and declare this, our Last Will and Testament.

We have given the matter much thought and although we shall take more from this school than we could possibly leave it, it is our privilege to leave behind a few remembrances. We have tried to consider the most needy cases in making these bequests.

ARTICLE I

To the members of the faculty we leave our appreciation for the wonderful guidance they have given us in the past years.

ARTICLE II

To Mr. McCreary and Mr. Bostian we leave our thanks for their kind and understanding ways throughout the years.

ARTICLE III

To the rising senior class we leave our senior dignity, our chapel seats, and the prestige that goes with being a senior.

ARTICLE IV

We, Jerry Blackwelder, Bill Hare, J. C. Scercy, Bobby Brawley, Paul Lutz, Glenn Julian, and Howard Moss, leave with next year's football team a supply of guns, ammunition, atom bombs, radar, and also a secret weapon with which we hope they will beat China Grove.

ARTICLE V

To our class sponsors, Miss Barrier, Mrs. Ritchie, and Miss Stiller: we, the graduating class of 1952, leave a sense of appreciation that can only be shown by the success our class attains in the future.

ARTICLE VI. Individual Bequests:

I, Eugene Abernathy, do will my ability to win a sweet boy-friend and then worry about him to any girl who wants to become gray headed quick.

I, Jeanette Holshouser, do will my love for married life to Daisy Mae Weaver.

I, Betsy Allman, do will my love for the cooks at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, to Bobbie Dudley.

I, Richard Atwell, do will my ability to get along with Mr. Teague to those of the Juniors who take Agriculture next year.

I, June Barker, do will my ability to get the "most talkative" of my Senior Class to my brother, Bobby.

I, Joanne Beaver, have been persuaded to leave to Betty Clodfelter my freckles and my ability never to have a boy friend.

I, James Beaver, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to get in trouble without trying to, to Bobby Eagle.

I, Hilda Bebbber, do will my cute figure to Mary Lee Williams.

I, Jerry Blackwelder, leave my "come hither" and "go yonder" looks to Larry Ford—hoping he will make full use of the possibilities.

I, Vivian Bostian, do will my love for music, my ability to understand Shakespeare, and my artistic ability to anyone who would like to have them.

I, Betty Jane Bowles, do hereby will my ability to keep quiet during class to Nancy Patterson.

I, Elaine Brotherton, do will my love for school to Barbara Crowder.

I, Jill Castor, do will my athletic ability to "Murphy."

I, Don Clanton, do will my ability to stay flat-headed and flat-busted to Bankie Moore.

I, Bessie Ann Clawson, hereby will my ability to come home early after Beta Club meetings to Sylvia Johnston.

I, Floranne Clodfelter, do will my love for knitting to Sylvia Johnston.

I, Angela Cooke, do will my Marchand hair and my love for Carolina Beach to Annette Chastain.

I, Mildred Cook, do will my beautiful blue eyes to Larry Ford.

I, Bobby Brawley, do will my position as president of Student Government to whoever gets elected to the job.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF THE CLASS OF 1952

I, Doris Correll, being of little body, little mind, and little significance, do leave as quietly as possible—on tiptoe.

I, Jerry Daugherty, do will my ability to squeeze through High School to anybody who needs it.

I, Anne Deal, do will my ability to have red hair without freckles to Joyce Dayvault.

I, Freddie Duncan, at the point of a gun have been persuaded to bestow my singing ability upon Doyce Wise—on the condition that he does not use it in public.

I, Robert Edmiston, after much deliberation, regretfully leave my way with women to Joe Cook. I also leave several girls heart-broken.

I, Janice Fink, do will my ability to act old ladies' parts to my sister, Shirley.

I, Murray Freeze, do will my love for girls named Shirley to Paul Clawson.

I, Elaine Griffin, do will my ability to barely pass second year French to anyone crazy enough to take it.

I, Emmett Griffin, do will my Firestone tires to Bobby Eagle in case his "may pops" pop.

I, Ramell Gullledge, do will my ability to remain quiet in school to Anne Fulcher.

I, Bill Hare, do will my ability to play baseball, basketball, and football to Lawrence Robinson, the dumb duck.

I, Beatrice Helms, do will my ability to get a boy friend, for keeps, to Shirley Swink.

I, Frances Hinson, do will my mathematical ability to Jeanette Hodges.

I, Joyce Holshouser, do will my popularity to Gail Miller and my position as Cheerleader to Christine Freeze.

I, Bonnie Holt, do will my ability to get along with everyone to Lillie Mae Griffin.

I, Bettye Huffman, do will my witty ways and good times at Landis High School to my sister, Nettie Sue.

I, Nancy Ingram, have been high-pressured into leaving my quiet and dignified manner in the rather doubtful keeping of Steve Deal.

I, Helen Jackson, do will my ability to make good grades to my sister, Anne.

I, William Jackson, do will my ability to get along with Miss Barrier to Paul Clawson and Ernest Stone.

I, Billy Joyce, do will my brain to the Biology Class, so they can find out what makes me so smart. (Such a smart aleck, that is.)

I, Glen Julian, being of sound body and a happy mind do hereby will my goofy typewriter to my brother Don—if he thinks he can teach the crazy thing to spell correctly.

I, Jerry Karriker, do will my blonde hair to Bobby Barker. Also, I regretfully leave a certain Junior girl.

I, Jo Ann Karriker do will my ability to sit in class and talk all the time to my brother, Phillip.

I, Lonnie Karriker, do leave, period!

I, Phil Lipe, Jr., do bequeath one slightly used "corn likker" still to next year's Business Manager of the Yellow Jacket, in hopes that he or she will be able to make some money with it, before he is caught.

I, Peggy Logan, have so many wonderful qualities that I just can't bring myself to part with any of them.

I, Paul Lutz, do will my speed on the gridiron to Donald Julian.

I, Joyce Lyerly, do will my love for drug-store cowboys and my ability to smoke cigars without getting sick to Gail Miller and Barbara Goodnight.

After much thought, I, Jean Mills, have decided to bequeath my pretty legs to Doris Moysan, in hopes they will help her become a candidate for Miss America.

I, Bob Morgan, being of happy mind and sound body do hereby will my ability to graduate to Jimmy Price, who needs it.

I, Howard Moss, do will my ability to play football and not talk about it to Buddy Byrd.

I, Mary Ellen McCarn, do will my title, "Miss Landis High," and my ambition to become a music director and teacher like Mr. Morgan, to Elinor Kimball.

I, Mary Nell McCarn, do will my ability to get a man before finishing school to Maxine Hess.

I, Betty McCorkle, do will my ability to stay on Student Government to Betty Clodfelter.

I, Bob McLaughlin, have decided that by leaving, I would take too much away from the school, so I am considering staying.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF THE CLASS OF 1952

I, Sarah McNeely, do will my height to Latrelle Funderburke.

I, Evelyn Nance, do will my ability to have blonde hair without the use of peroxide to any girl who uses it.

I, Helen Nichols, do will my love for Camp LeJeune to some lucky girl.

I, Bill Noah, do will my ability to lead the Confederate Cavalry to Mr. Joe William Cook and Larry Grant Ford.

I, Carol Osborne, do sadly leave my chat-box in the care of Marianne Corriher, hoping she will treat it as well as I have.

I, Betty Outen, do will my ability to always have an excuse to Yvonne Campbell.

I, Ernest Overcash, do will my English book to anyone unlucky enough to need it.

I, Foy Overcash, do will my one hand bus driving to Bobby Goodnight.

I, Marlene Overcash, do will my ability to flirt with every boy I see to Joanne Lipe.

I, Freida Pennell, leave nothing — because a certain man likes me the way I am.

I, Jewell Poarch, do will my ability to learn "Shorthand" to Elzo Threatt.

I, Mary Rice, do will my job in Mr. McCreary's office and my "dear old typewriter" to Peggy Hanes.

Upon the repeated demand of the Senior Class, we, Guy Ritchie and E. J. Heglar are forced to part with our horse laughs to unfortunate Joe Cooke and Steve Deal.

I, Bessie Roberts, do will my ability to pass Business Math to my brother, Don, who will probably be taking it again next year.

I, Voygt Roseman, do will my bashfulness in public and my ability to get down to business in private to Bruce Ketner.

I, J. C. Scercy, do will my ability to play shortstop for the Landis Prison to Larry Graham.

I, Bill Sheeks, do will my personality to Larry Ford.

I, Bill Slough, do will my ability to make good grades in American History and my love for crew cuts to Gene Weddington.

I, Bruce Smith, will my ability to stay thin and eat regularly to Joe Thompson.

I, Charles Smith, do will my ability to keep my mouth shut in Chemistry to Bill Barnes.

I, Anita Taylor, do will my love for peroxide and 88 Olds to Shirley Davis.

I, Elsie Troutman, do will my ability to stay quiet in school to Minnie Belle Lentz.

I, Colleen Upright, do will the determination to finish school to my sister, Hazel.

I, Kenneth Weddington, do will my Bus, No. 49, to any junior who will have it.

I, Gerald Wise, leave to the school one picture of myself, so I will never be forgotten.

I, Bessie Margaret Wright, do will my bus, No. 57, to Barbara Ann Goodnight.

I, Eva Mae Yost, do will my ability to get a man to anyone who is looking for a husband.

I, Hazel Yost, do will my ability to skate well to Joe Thompson, who has great need of it.

I, Glen Yow, being of sound mind, do will my ability to do English to Doyce Wise.

I, Colleen Cook, do will my ability to be at the bus stop on time to Mary Neel Gris-dale.

Thus spoken, we come to the end of this most sacred document. In witness whereof we hereby set our hands, our feet, and our seal, on this twenty-third day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two.

Dear "Mama",

This has been my second wonderful year here at Landis College. I now feel that I am almost as smart as you. Course you are awful smart, seeing as how many girl-friends and boyfriends you have. You are really sweet and nice and cute and darling. Course your feet are too big and your mouth is much too big. I would like to give you some advice (you know a sophomore in college knows a lot of good advice.) There are some things about J.Y. : He is O.K. if you like him and I'll allow you to see him once in a while. There's G.D. who ~~was~~ you only dated once (I hope) and my advice about him is - 'Don't do it anymore!' Ha! As if you would. All those boys from R.H.S. and M.U.H.S. and M.V.S. and G.D.H.S. I can't say about cause I didn't know 'em. If they were good enough for a lovely, adorable, glamorous, exquisite, refreshing, and charming gem like you then good luck to 'em. We sure had fun in study hall (studying???) and Glee Club (singing???) didn't we? We had a big time at Anne's and my birthday party. Guess it was a teeny weensy bit late when we got home. But were only young once! (Mean always.) I hope someday you find someone as wonderful and handsome as Dallas and you two have just as many fusses and just as much fun. I'll always remember how sweetly you listened to me tell all my troubles. All kidding aside you are one of my best friends and I hope we will always be pals. Maybe it's corny to say I wish you good luck and happiness but I really do so I'll say it anyway.

Be seeing you squirt!
"Baby"

(Reserved) Shelly

Martha,

I have enjoyed being in school,
in + out + at church.

I hate we made — mad one Sunday evening. I hope you aren't mad at me for that.

I am ~~good~~ looking forward to going to camp with you this summer. We will have a good time.

We really have had wonderful times together. What about the last square dance? Boy!

~~My~~ Martha, you are a swell person. I am ~~is~~ looking forward in seeing you next year. The Best of everything.

Love ya,
